Pressure Injury Prevention:

Embedding Awareness into our practise

Let the inspiring Tracy, our internationally renowned speaker, freshly motivate us around better care for our patients in acute care

ABOUT THE SPEAKER

Tracy Nowicki, CLINICAL NURSE CONSULTANT. Tracy is employed as a Clinical Nurse Consultant in a major, acute care teaching hospital in Brisbane. Over the years, Tracy has acquired extensive clinical expertise and management knowledge while working across a number of clinical specialties. A significant focus of her current role is to bring innovation to the development of central equipment management so as to ensure optimal patient outcomes. Pressure Injury prevention, Falls Injury prevention, assisting staff to understand the complexities of obesity and quality risk management are the focus points of Tracy's job. She is a member of the Pan Pacific Steering committee, Queensland leader of QBiG, on the review committee for Standard 8, is a member of the Australian Pressure Injury Alliance Committee and has been on the review committee for the Global pressure ulcer guidelines. She believes in fun through learning and looking at new horizons of how we do business. Tracy is consistently highly evaluated by those who attend her educational sessions.
